Focus and Scope

Journal of Clinical Medicine Research (JOCMR), published bimonthly, is an international, open access and peer-reviewed journal that concentrates on general medical research and clinical practice. This journal aims to publish scientifically written, evidence-based articles from all disciplines of medical sciences and clinical practice, and nursing, preventive medicine, epidemiology, healthcare research, etc. All articles are rigorously peer-reviewed. Manuscripts should present novel findings addressing significant questions in clinical medicine research and practice, in the form of original article, editorial, review, short communication, case report, letter to the editor, and others.

General Requirements

All manuscripts should be submitted electronically via our website, submissions via regular mail are not acceptable at the moment. Manuscripts should be double-spaced (including references, tables, and figure legends). There is no word limit for manuscripts, and no limit for number of figures, tables, and references.

Before submitting online, authors are asked to have their manuscript saved in word file and each figure saved as a separate electronic file, preferably named as "figure 1.tif," "figure 2.jpg," etc.

Manuscripts are accepted for consideration with the understanding that they have been submitted solely to Journal of Clinical Medicine Research and that they have not been previously published, either in whole or in part. Journal of Clinical Medicine Research is a fully peer-reviewed journal. The editors reserve the right to make editorial changes in all matter published in the Journal.

A cover letter should always accompany the manuscript. It should include the name, mailing address, telephone and FAX numbers, and e-mail address of the corresponding author.

Types of Manuscripts

The manuscript should be written in English and the editors reserve the right to make appropriate corrections in grammar and style.
